NOTE FROM THE TEACHER

We are in the home stretch! It is hard to believe that another year will be coming to a close.

I am so proud of all the students and marvel at their accomplishments this year. When I encourage them to reflect on their year, it is my hope that they recognize their abilities, gifts, and talents. I hope that I have provided many opportunities for them to reach their potential while nurturing their self-esteem and confidence. To me, that is a successful year!
