

EIGHT ELEMENTS OF A MYSTERY

1. False Clues
2. Clues
3. Villain
4. Suspects
5. Problem
6. Suspense or Foreshadowing
7. Detective
8. Solution

The Westing Game Point of View: Third person omniscient-The author is the narrator and gets into the “brains” of the many characters. This gives the reader the thoughts and feelings of these characters.

Setting: Sunset Towers on Lake Michigan in the state of Wisconsin. Present day

Background info:

Tenant: one who rents

Bookie: a person who takes bets illegally