

Environment for Trouble

- post World War I Germany
 1. Germany was defeated and had to pay for damages caused by war.

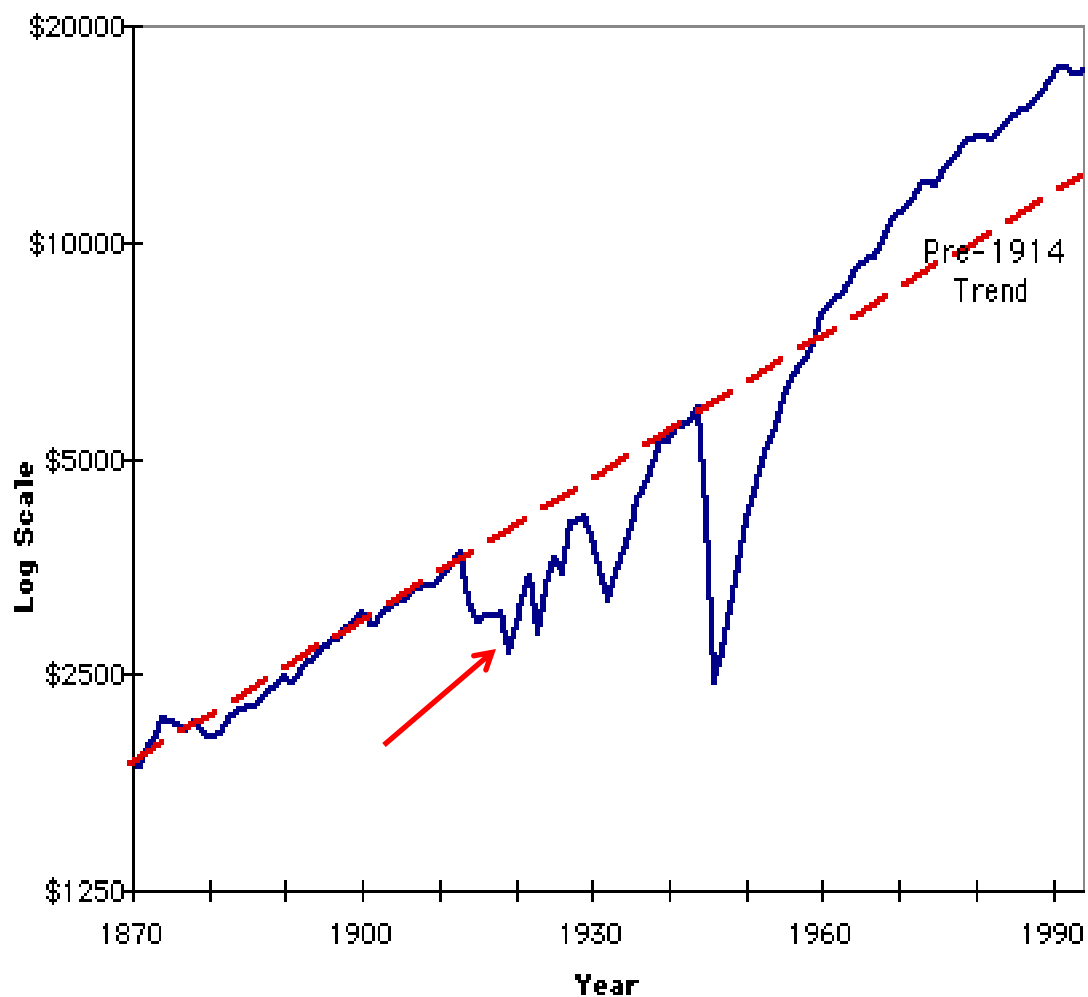

Environment for Trouble

- post World War I Germany
 1. Germany was defeated and had to pay for damages caused by war.

The German Economy

Germany (West after 1945): GDP per Capita,
1870-1994

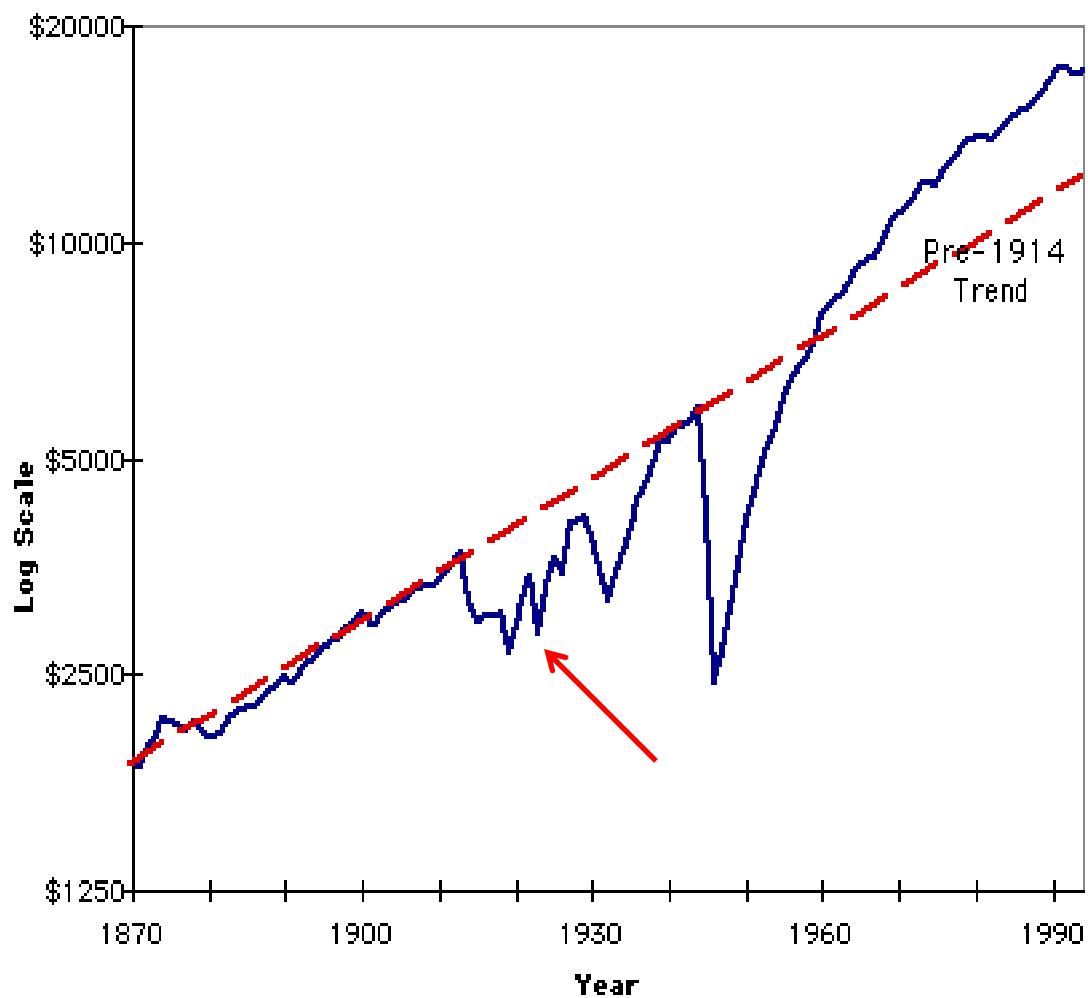

2. Germans overthrew the emperor and formed a DEMOCRATIC government

The German Economy

Germany (West after 1945): GDP per Capita,
1870-1994

3. In 1923, economy collapsed. German money was worthless.
Millions of Germans lost their life savings.
Economy slowly recovered until . . .

The German Economy:

(not on outline)

Money became worthless.

Before World War I:
$1 = about 4 marks.

A few years later:
$1 = 4.2 TRILLION marks

Kids used money as toys.

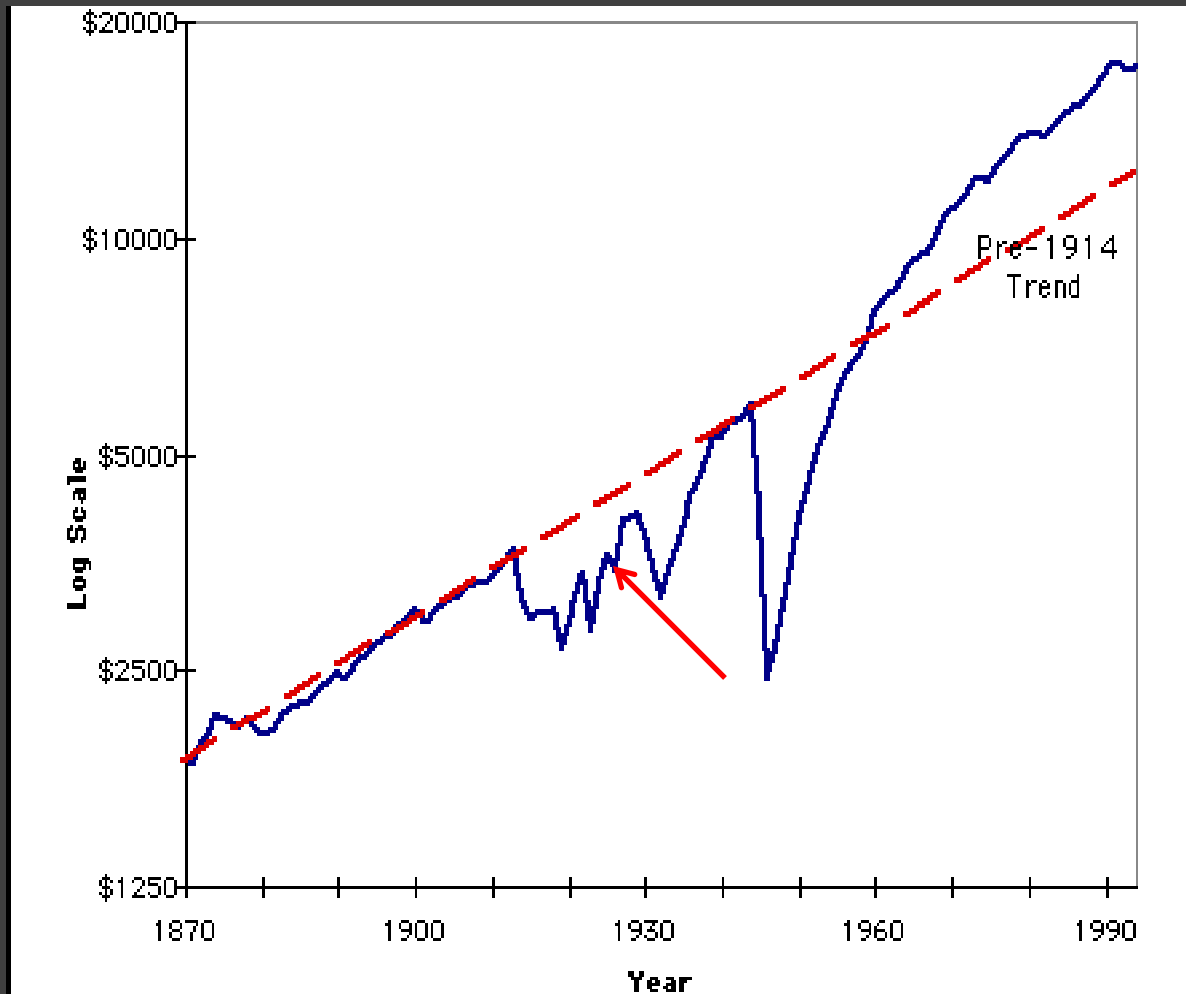

The German Economy:

(not on outline)

People burned money to keep themselves warm.

The German Economy

4. The Great Depression of 1929 spread to Germany. Many lost their homes and were going hungry.

4. The Great Depression of 1929 spread to Germany. Many lost their homes and were going hungry.

High unemployment (40%).
Germans were looking for a change.

High unemployment (40%).
Germans were looking for a change.

IV. A New Power in Germany

A. The NAZI Party claims to have answer to all of Germany's problems

1. Nazi is short for "National Socialist German Workers Party"

2. leader of Nazi Party at this time was ADOLF HITLER
a. this man became their leader
due to his very “charismatic” speeches

2. leader of Nazi Party at this time was ADOLF HITLER
a. this man became their leader
due to his very “charismatic” speeches

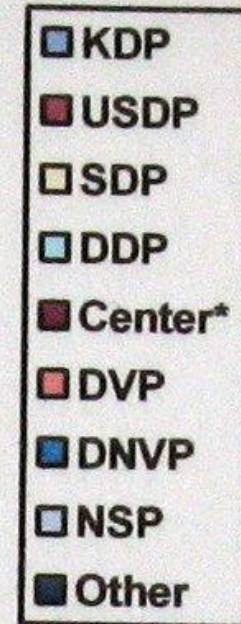

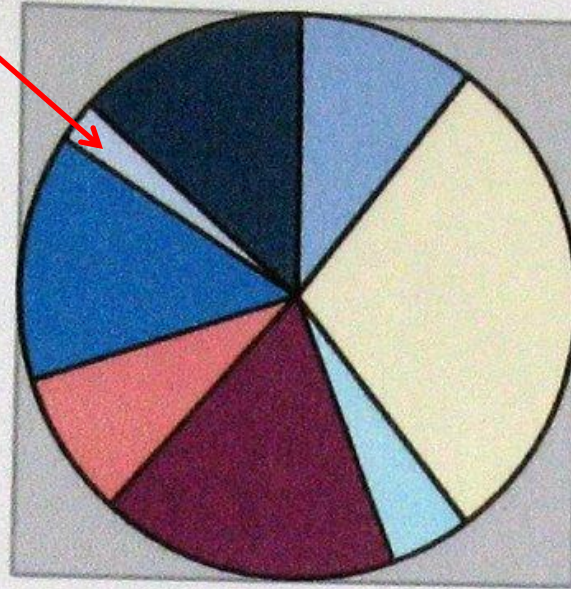

3. Nazis said Germans were the SUPERIOR / ARYAN race
- a. all others were INFERIOR

3. anti-Semitism was a significant part of the Nazi Party
- a. anti-Semitism is the HATRED of Jewish people
 - b. they claimed Jews were Germany's GREATEST ENEMY
 - c. Jews became the "scapegoat" for Germany's problems
 - i. a SCAPEGOAT is blamed for someone's problems
 - d. Hitler claimed that that Germans must destroy Jews

1928

NAZI

B. Nazi Party dominates German politics

1. In 1929, only 12 Nazis in the German Parliament.

“the NSDAP ensures
the people’s community”

“people enjoy their needs, advice,
and (success) as you join
the local group”

“Death to Lies”

“Hitler builds on help with buying (German products)”

B. Nazi Party dominates German politics

2. Hitler had Nazis use VIOLENCE to intimidate their opponents

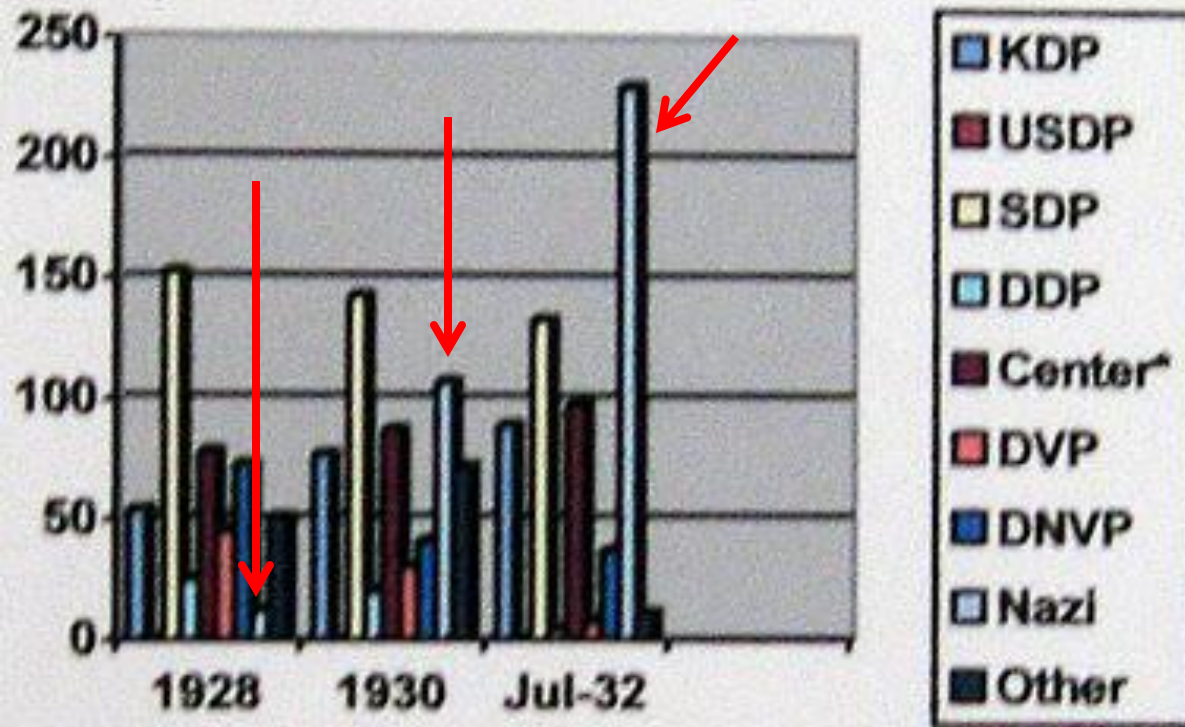

July, 1932

NAZI

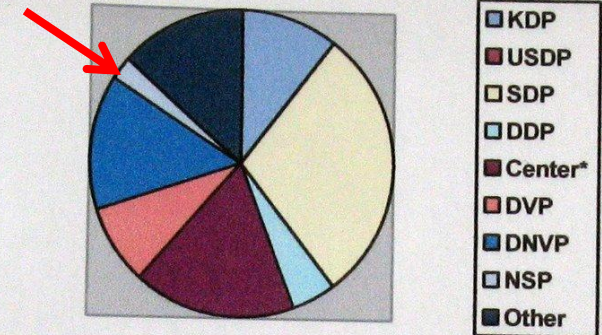

3. In 1932, Nazis ended up with 230 seats in parliament.
a. this was more than any other political party.

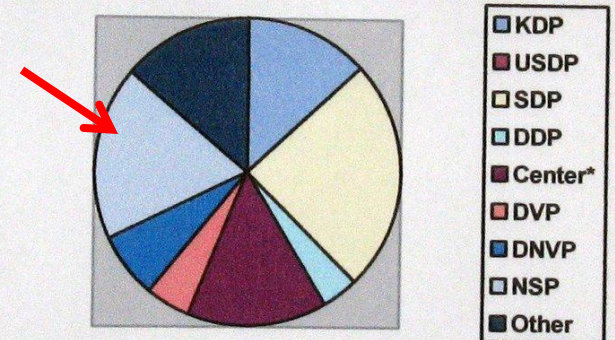

The Nazi Party's Power Grows in Parliament

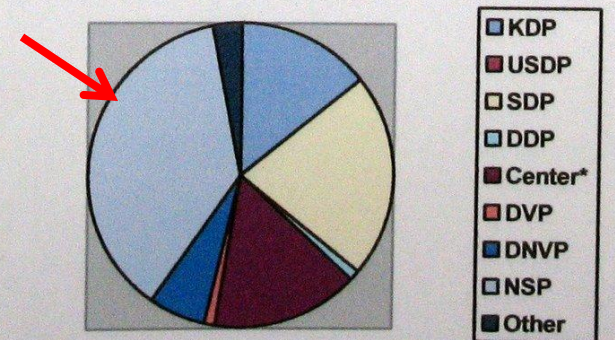

1928

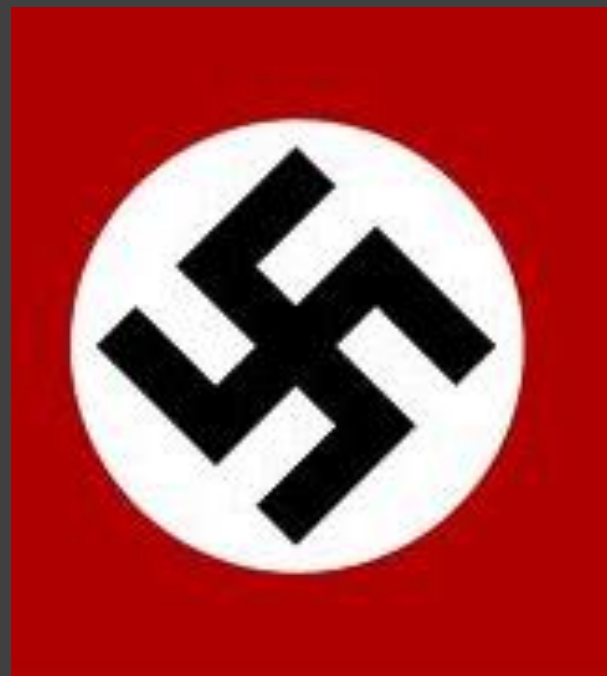

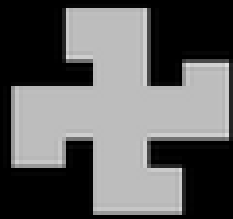

1930

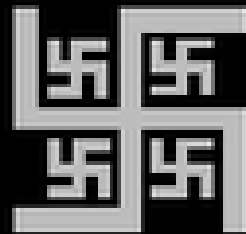

July, 1932

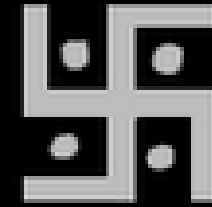

HOPI

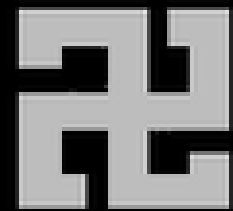

CHRISTIAN

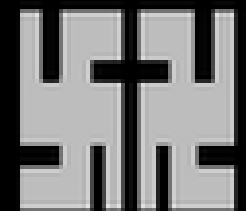

MALTA

TIBET

CEYLON

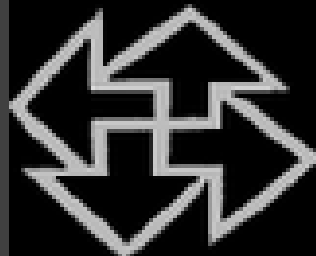

CHINA

JAPAN

ISLAMIC

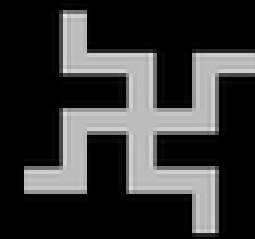

LAPLAND

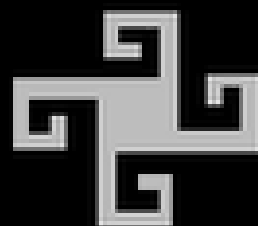

HINDU

CELT

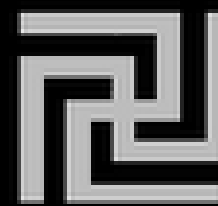

BALI

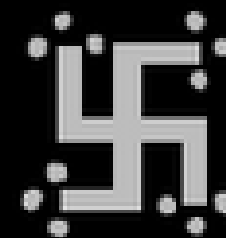

AZTEC

JAIN

GREEK

JEWISH

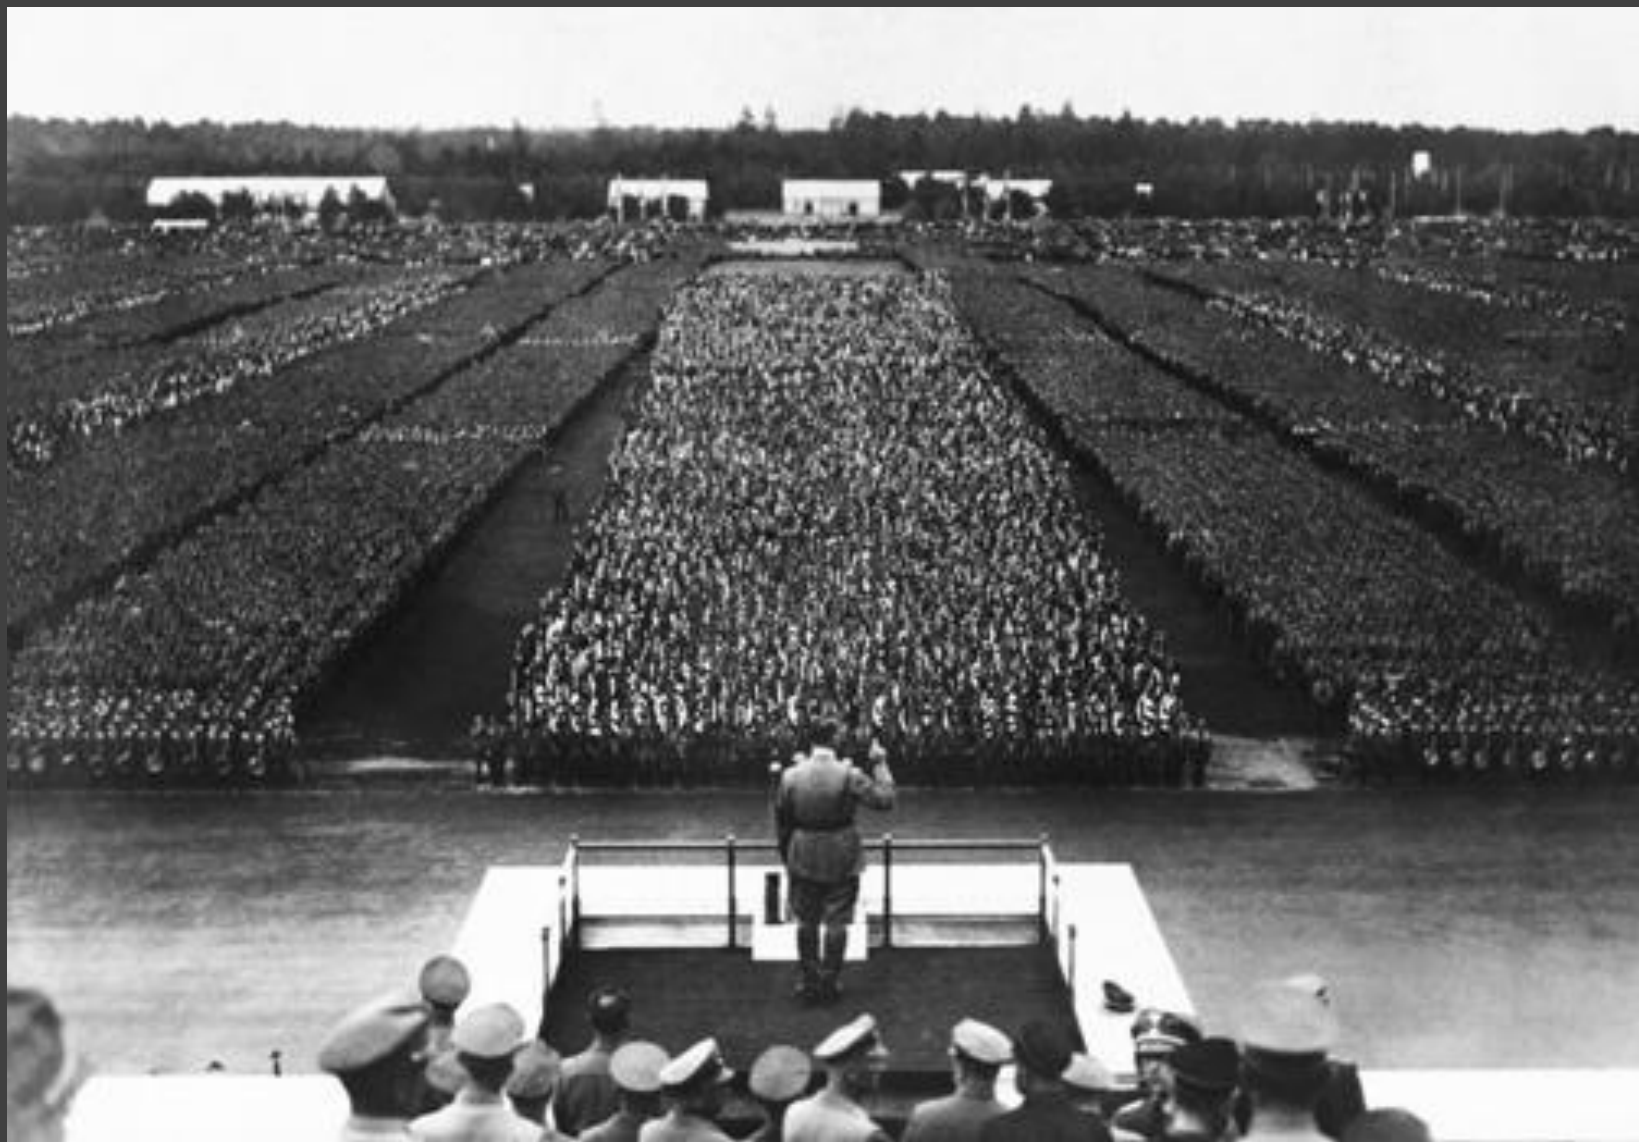

C. A New Leader for Germany

1. As the majority party, the NAZI Party was responsible for selecting the new Chancellor.
 - a. this was their head of government (like PRESIDENT)
2. In January 1933, Hitler is APPOINTED Chancellor.

D. Nazi Dictatorship Begins.

1. In March 1933, Nazis passed a law & gave HITLER total power over Germany.
2. The government changed from a DEMOCRACY into a DICTATORSHIP.

3. The first Nazi concentration camp
is opened in DACHAU.

3. The first Nazi concentration camp
is opened in DACHAU.