

World Geography Scavenger Hunt

1. Draw a COMPASS ROSE in the bottom left corner of your world map.
- 2.
3. Find and color each of the 7 continents using the Relative Location clues below.
 - a. Antarctica is the southernmost continent. “Color” it WHITE.
 - b. Australia is north of Antarctica’s east coast. Color it BROWN.
 - c. Africa is the only continent located within ALL 4 hemispheres. Color it PURPLE.
 - d. Europe is directly north of Africa. Color it RED.
 - e. If you traveled east from Europe, you would end up in Asia. Color it YELLOW.
 - f. The Western Hemisphere contains only two complete continents:
 - i. South America is located in both the Northern and Southern Hemispheres. Color it ORANGE.
 - ii. North America is northwest of South America. Color it GREEN.
4. Make a map key to show the color of each continent.
5. Label each of the following oceans.
 - a. The Atlantic Ocean lies east of the Americas and west of Europe and Africa.
 - b. The Pacific Ocean lies west of the Americas and east of Asia and Australia.
 - c. The Indian Ocean lies south of Asia, east of Africa, and west of Australia.
 - d. The Arctic Ocean is located at the North Pole.