

Responsible

Being responsible
is a big part in ones life.

We do it everyday

To be responsible means...

having an obligation to do something, or having control over or care for someone, as part of one's job or role.

"the department responsible for education" synonyms: in charge of, in control of, at the helm of, accountable for, liable for

"who is responsible for the prisons?"

- being the primary cause of something and so able to be blamed or credited for it.

"the gene was responsible for a rare type of eye cancer"

synonyms: accountable, answerable, to blame, guilty, culpable, blameworthy, at fault, in the wrong

"if an error's been made, I'm the one who's responsible"

- (of a job or position) involving important duties, independent decision-making, or control over others.

synonyms: important, powerful, executive

"a responsible job"

Digory had a responsibility to go and save his friend from the world between the worlds

The image features a central text overlay on a background of out-of-focus green leaves and branches. The text is white with a subtle drop shadow, making it stand out against the darker, natural background. The quote is centered and reads: "A hero is someone who understands the responsibility that comes with his freedom."

A hero is someone who understands the responsibility that comes with his freedom.

Example:

Mowing the lawn
Feeding your pets
Cleaning the house
Doing the dishes
Taking care of your children
Going to school
Going to work

Being Responsible

If you are responsible you will be greatly rewarded and you'll have a clean house and life and will know how to take care of things .

Not responsible

You won't get things done and won't know how to live, they would be walking around not knowing what  $1+1$  is and would have a dirty house .

Stay responsible
