

The Room 155

There once was a room 155. It was the most horrific room in the whole school!!! Tara was one of the biggest bully's in the school. Her worst habit was stealing peoples lunch money. Also, she wasn't that kind to her besties, Kathryn and Joseph. Sometimes Joseph wanted to play with his other friends, but Tara wouldn't let him! So, he thought about not being Tara's friend. Then Kathryn said to him, "Sometimes bullies bully people because their hurting inside." He said, "You're right. I just wish she could stop!" Then they asked the teacher. Her name was Mrs. Meredith.

Kathryn and Joseph asked her, "Why does she want to be so mean to us! We don't understand!" Mrs. Meredith said, "Some people bully because they don't understand that they're bullying you, or because someone is bullying them, or maybe in the past something happened." "Can you tell her to stop?", said Kathryn. "We don't like it! I feel like she does it on purpose!", they said. "We've been kind to her since first grade, when Joseph and I met her for the first time. She wasn't kind to us then, and isn't kind to us now!!!"

"I'll talk to Tara. I promise", said Mrs. Meredith. The next day Tara came over to Joseph and Kathryn and she said, "I'm sorry. I didn't know I was hurting your feelings. How can I make it up to you?" "Well", said Joseph, "... we just want a friend that will be nice to us. Can you be that friend?" "I would love that", Tara said nicely! So, they introduced Tara to their other friends. Then they all played tag!
