

FIGURATIVE LANGUAGE

By: Lauren Borie

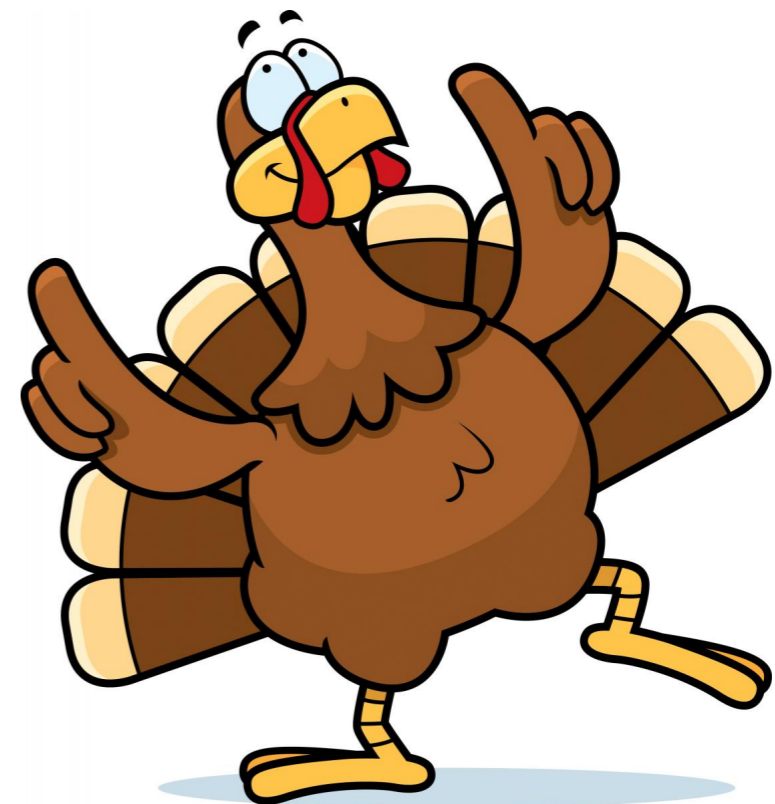

SIMILE

-
- A simile is comparing something using like or as.
 - You are as cute as a puppy.

METAPHOR

- A metaphor is comparing something not using like or as.
- 307 Locust Lane is a mad house on Thanksgiving Day!

PERSONIFICATION

- Giving human traits to a non-human object
- The mashed potatoes yelled at me to eat them!

HYPERBOLE

-
- A hyperbole is a exaggeration.
 - That test was a piece of cake.

IDIOM

- An idiom is a group of words expressing a thought.
- You can't teach an old dog new tricks - It's harder for older people to learn new things

ALLITERATION

- ▶ An alliteration is a same letter or sound at the beginning.
- ▶ If two witches were watching two watches, which witch would watch which watch.

If two witches were watching
two watches, which witch
would watch which watch?

ONOMATOPOEIA

- An onomatopoeia is sound words with what is named.

BOOM!

That's all Folks!

QUESTIONS!

-Micr