

Charlotte's Web
Book Report
By Charlotte Filak

Summary

Charlottes Web started out by Mr.Arable wanting to kill a runt. A runt is a small and weak pig that will never amount to do anything ,but fern his daughter would not let him kill the pig so Mr.Arable let fern keep the pig as a pet. That morning fern feed the pig a bottle of milk. Then fern had to leave for school. After a few weeks Wilbur got sold to ferns uncle Mr. Homer L Zuckerman. One rainy day Wilbur the pig was lonely it was dark he was crying he heard someone she said don't be sad Wilbur did not no who it was I cant see you though wake up in the morning and I will be there so Wilbur went to bed. He woke up and could not see her he said the animal that addressed me at bed time last night will you please speak up and she said salutations and Wilbur saw her it was Charlotte. After a few weeks homer wanted to kill Wilbur but Charlotte would not let him so she spun a web with words on it. In just a little bit of time Wilbur was famous! He was in the county fair and he won a prize. Charlotte got very tired and weak but before that she laid her egg sack Wilber took the egg sack back with him and in the spring the eggs hatched Charlottes babies were wonderful but none of them took the place of Charlotte.

Opinion/Recommendation

I loved the book Charlottes Web. It is a lovely book. It was a little bit of a mystery. The author used his/her imagination the author used great describing words. He/she made you want to read more of the book. Most books are not like that one and I liked how the author made the animals talk the book was very creative. The author made the animals faint and it was funny near the end it got sad. But like all books it turned out happy. I recommend this book.
