

Land

Continent:

Europe

Capital City:

London

Other Important Cities:

- Derby
- Lincoln
- York
- Bath
- Exeter

Bordering Countries:

- Belgium
- France
- Denmark
- Netherlands

Photo Courtesy of World Book Online

Guy Fawkes Day

Guy Fawkes Day is on November 5,

Guy Fawkes led a plot to blow up the Parliament building. The plot failed. People celebrate Guy Fawkes by setting dummies on fire. The dummies represent Guy Fawkes.

Fawkes is the closest identified with the plot because he was discovered in a cellar under the Parliament building waiting to set off an explosion. Guy Fawkes Day is very interesting.

References

Sutcliffe, Anthony, and Peter R. Mounfield. "England." World Book Student. World Book, 2015. Web. 4 June 2015.

Boraas, Tracey. "Countries and Cultures: England." Bridgestone Books. Book. 4 June 2015.

Created by:
Samuel Gelfand.

England

Photo Courtesy of World Book Online

Samuel Gelfand

Juliana Grainger.

Alixandrea Szejman.

Dylan Burkey.

Land The People of England

Water Bodies:

- Severn River
- Trent River
- Thames River
- Windermere Lake
- English Channel

Climate: In England winter it rarely goes lower than 10 degrees Fahrenheit (12 degrees Celsius) in summer it goes higher than 90

Landforms:

- Mountains
- Hills
- Ocean
- Rivers
- Lakes

Photo Courtesy of World Book Online

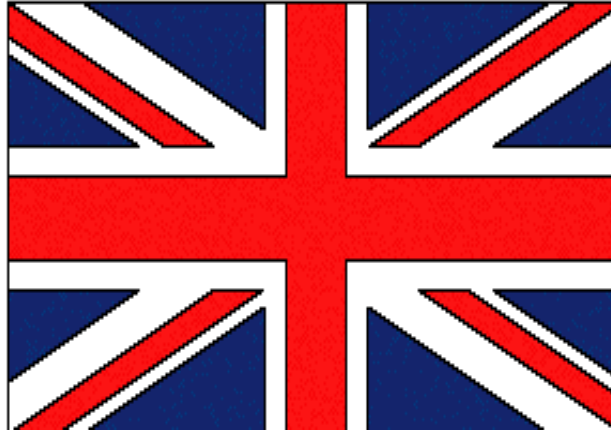

Photo Courtesy of World Book Online

The population of England is 53,393,000

The languages spoken here are English and French.

Major Religions:

- Baptist church
- Church of England
- Methodist
- Jewish
- Catholic
- Muslim
- Roman Catholic
- Protestant

Food:

- Yorkshire pudding
- Potatoes
- Fish
- Steak
- Peas

Recreation:

- Polo horse
- Lawn bowling
- Cricket
- Horse back riding
- Football

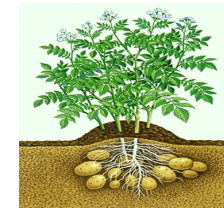

Photo courtesy of World Book Online