

Charlotte's Web
Book Report
By Kayla Spalter

Summary

There once was a girl named Fern that loved animals so much that she even saved one from getting killed and she named him Wilbur. Fern loved Wilbur but he was getting too big to be in the house so they sent him to her uncle's farm, and she visited him every day but he was still lonely. One day a spider named Charlotte she said she was a salyoutasans and they were best friends but one evening the oldest sheep spoke up and said they will kill you Wilbur and that started everything. Wilbur bursted into tears! he asked Charlotte is it true she said yes.

Opinion/Recommendation

Charlotte's web is an interesting story. I love how the story was written with all the dramatic scenes were terrific! I love all the characters. I would tell my friends to read this book!
